

WATCH: Ruben Gallego Refuses to Answer Questions About His Relationship With Maricopa County's Top Election Official After His Shocking and Unexplainable Arizona Election 'Win' over Kari Lake

GP thegatewaypundit.com/2024/11/watch-ruben-gallego-refuses-answer-questions-about-his/

Nov. 21, 2024 10:30 am

Democrat Ruben Gallego

Democrat Arizona House Representative Ruben Gallego refused to answer The Gateway Pundit's questions on Wednesday about his questionable win against Kari Lake in the US Senate election on November 5.

The Gateway Pundit has reported extensively on the defrauding of Kari Lake in the last two election cycles.

The Gateway Pundit readers know that in 2022, Kari Lake was running as the Trump-endorsed candidate for Governor and led by double digits in the polls leading up to election day.

But the fix was in, and on election day, 60% of the machines in Maricopa County failed to tabulate votes, creating four-hour-long wait times and disenfranchising thousands, if not tens of thousands of voters.

Additionally, hundreds of thousands of ballots with no chain of custody or signature verification ID checks were counted in Lake's stolen election for Governor.

The people counting the votes also hated Kari Lake, and her opponent, Katie Hobbs, was the top election official in Arizona at the time.

The top election official in Maricopa County, where over 60% of voters reside, even sued Kari Lake for defamation ahead of the 2024 election, which he oversaw. It was recently revealed in court documents that Richer is a self-proclaimed "anti-MAGA" individual whose life mission, in his own words, is to "make life hell for Kari Lake." How can anybody trust this guy to run a fair election?

BREAKING: Maricopa County Recorder Stephen Richer's Deposition Transcript Shows Desire to "Make Life Hell for Kari Lake," Calls Himself "Anti-MAGA" in Text Messages – Now He's Counting The Votes in Lake's Senate Race!

Not only does Richer detest Kari Lake, but he's also neighbors and seemingly friends with Lake's 2024 Senate opponent. Likewise, Ruben Gallego "f*cking hates" Kari Lake and "wants her to die," according to a former Democratic Senate aide.

Soros-backed and cartel-tied Ruben Gallego supposedly beat Kari Lake by over 80,000 votes in the Senate race. Meanwhile, President Trump won the state of Arizona by nearly 190,000 against Kamala Harris.

This makes no sense, especially when you take into account other races in Maricopa County and statewide where Trump or Lake-Endorsed candidates won.

Take, for example, the countywide race for Maricopa County Recorder, where Kari Lake-Endorsed Republican Justin Heap won by over 80,000 votes. Likewise, President Trump took a 70,000 vote lead in Maricopa.

But we're being asked to believe that Kari Lake lost by over 100,000 votes in the same county.

And the suspicion is not just in Maricopa County. As The Gateway Pundit reported, the number of votes received after election day in the counties of Pima and Yuma increased, raising even more questions about the integrity of this election statewide. Cochise County also faced bizarre machine malfunctions following supposed bomb threats, which the Democratic Secretary of State attributed to Russia.

When questioned about his friendship with Maricopa County Recorder Stephen Richer, his family ties to the cartel, and whether or not his election was run fairly, Gallego had no answers.

Watch below: